

Essential Businesses that are allowed to remain open.

The following (types of) businesses have been deemed as essential and are hereby authorized to continue offering services to the public during the mentioned period in the Regulation. These businesses should implement proper hygienic measures as well as measures that promote social distancing.

Accommodations	Services
Hotels and other types of short-term accommodation	Government Services
Yachting agents & vessels	Banks & Money Transfer Services
Home, Auto & General Repair	Financial and Insurance activities
Maintenance and repair of motor vehicles, boats, machinery and equipment	Postal Services
Sales of auto parts	Law Offices, Notaries and Accounting Firms
Construction companies	Kadaster
Retailers of building materials, hardware, paints and glass	Shipping Agents & Cargo Services
	Real Estate Firms
Rental and leasing of heavy machinery and equipment	Utilities & Telecommunication companies incl. retail of telecommunication equipment
Repair of Communication and ICT equipment	Employment Agencies
Food & Beverages	Suppliers of fuel (ULG, Gasoil, Diesel etc.)
Food & beverage suppliers (wholesale and retail) until 8 pm nightly	Media outlets
Bakeries, Roadside vendors and Restaurants are only allowed to offer take-out and delivery services	Turning Point Foundation
	Barbershops and Hair salons
	Public Transportation Services
Food distribution by charitable organizations	Funeral Services (limited groups or in open spaces taking social distancing into account)
Medical facilities	Laundromats/ Dry-cleaners
	Cleaning Companies & Garbage Collection
Sint Maarten Medical Center	Retail of Goods
Medical Offices/ Practices	Retailers of computers, software and related equipment
Dental Clinics	Retail of newspapers
Physical Therapy Practices	Pet stores
White & Yellow Cross	Natural Health Stores
Pharmaceutical Suppliers & Pharmacies	Religious Services
Medical Laboratories	Churches and other worship establishments (Must adhere to the social distancing rule of 1-2m² pp)
Veterinary clinics
All Paramedic Services
Mental Health Foundation	